

People choose, and can choose, whether they want XM radio or not. It is just like cable service, either you want HBO or you don't. You have the choice. With XM weather and traffic you get it right away where a regular radio station will have commercial, after commercial, after commercial. If I'm paying for XM radio why can't I have a weather and traffic service available.